Henry Taylor & Dora Ann - his wife were named admin. of the estate of Thomas L. Holley/Holley
She named "Nearest Kin" which makes me think she was oldest child. I only found this one document & so don't know the other heirs -

1840 c would have his family (wife dead)

Thomas L. 1840 c	(Dora Ann b. 1824)
male	1820-25
male	1820-25
male	1825-30
male	1825-30
female	1825-30
male	1830-35
male	1830-35
female	1830-35
male	1835-40

So there should be
A lot of "Holly" descendants around, somewhere, of this family.

1840 c. shows Henry & Dora lived near Thomas.

Dora m at age 16 &
had 14 children, 1 boy died Age 16 - 1 girl d. young

The other twelve lived to marry. Dora taught school, farmed & homesteaded 2 parcels of land after Henry died as result of C.W. wounds.

Assuming Thomas L. Holley was in Ala.
by 1820; I. found

1820, Dallas Co. Ala.

James Holley next door
Thomas L. " to each other

1830, Lowndes Co. Ala. same above

(TAKEN FROM DALLAS Co., so probably same place)

1840, Thomas in Talladega Co. Ala

James in Lowndes Co. Ala.
(also 1850) need to check for will for him.
He was a Methodist P. minister
A owed a good bit of RE. $7,760
1850

In all these censuses there were other families prob.
children of both men, near by.
Sure wish I knew for sure

John Holley Mayo and family were living in Covington County, Alabama in 1840 and 1850 Census. He came to Texas in 1856.

Am sorry I cannot help you with the Holleys. Before Greutlen County, ^{in Georgia} was created in 1918, Montgomery County was next to Laurens. My mayos were in Washington and Montgomery Counties from 1790-1818. Gideon was in Conecuh County in 1818 and 1820. Have not been able to find him after the 1820 Census in Conecuh Co., Ala. I believe ^{live} in Laurens County, Georgia. Do you have a copy of the Jonathon Holley will? If so, please send me a copy and I'll pay you the costs.

If I find any other information on the Holleys, I be glad to let you know.

Sincerely yours,
Miley Mayo Cariker

Dear Mrs. Netherington,

I am enclosing a family chart of John Holly Mayo; he was my great grandfather. His father Sideon Mayo was married twice. From family tradition, I believe Sideon's father was Mark Mayo of Washington and Montgomery Counties Georgia. Sideon had a son named Mark born ca 1802^{in Ga.}; I believe young Mark was a son of Sideon's first wife. Sideon's second wife was Elizabeth ?. It is possible that her surname was Holly (Halley). I have not been able to obtain any information about his name, Halley.

There were three Halleys (Halley's) listed in in Alabama 1850 census: (Covington County)

1. William Halley 80 male born in S.C.

Chastity	43 F	"	"	S.C.

Elias was in the household of Greenberry Merrill.

Dear Mrs Edwards:

Thanks for your prompt reply to my request on the Holleys of MS. I'm still plugging along trying to put it all together, and when I get something that makes sense I'll send you a copy.

I am enclosing two family group sheets on Mary Ann HEMITAR showing both of her husbands and children. If you have any additional data on the ROBINSON line I sure would appreciate getting copies of it.

Also I will get you copies of the material that is in my mother's bible (Berth I HOLLEY). My brother has the bible and he lives about 90 miles from me, but we try to see each other every month or so and the next time I go there I will pick up the bible and bring it home and copy the material.

Thanks again
Tom

Dear Pat:

There is no excuse for not writing for such a long period of time, but I will try to make a small one. In October of 1989 I got involved in a civic project the has take all of my time until just a few months ago. I have been doing all I can to get the State of Texas to formulate rules to stop the contamination of our ground water from the massive influx of dairies (80,000 milk cows) that have moved into the county in the past few years. At least I have made everyone in the state aware. Just have to wait and see if I have done any good.

Remember me writing you in my last letter that I had made contact with a Mrs Verna Holley Phillips-P O Box 11201-Montgomery AL 36111 who was writing a book on the Holleys. Well, she has and I have obtained a copy. Her information solved a number of my Holley problems. She is selling her book for $50 if you are interested. It is about 600 pages. Before buying the book, I would review the Decendant Charts to see if any names are of interest.

I am sending you several things, much of which is out of the book. So let me try to explain some of them.

Starting with the decendants chart. Since my Godfrey Lee Holley (in yellow on first page) married a Mary Jane Holley (2nd wife) I have printed one for his family line, and one for her family line. Godfrey's starting with James Holley, and Mary Jane's starting with Nathaniel Holley. I have marked yellow some of the names that I thought you might have an interest in.

The pedigree charts start with Verna Inez Holley Phillips's son to show the 2 branching Holley lines starting with #12 and 13.

I have run 4 family group sheets of families that I think you are interested in. If you see others on the decendant chart that are of interest I will run family group sheets for you.

As you can see the early reconstruction of James Holley's family, b 1750, comes from your data and I have not found any new data. I hope some of this material adds to your family history.

Sure enough a cousin!

Tom

William Holley was born in South Carolina on August 1, 1771. His wife, Charlotte was born in that state May 28, 1778. They were married in the late 1790's and they raised a family of as many as seven sons and two daughters, but the names of only six of their sons are known; They are Hosea, b 2-16-1799; Calvin b ca 1803, 11, b ca 1805; Alfred, b. 1811; John b. 2-2-1813 and William Jr., b. 1817. William Holley remained in South Carolina until 1819 when he moved his family to Conecuh County, Alabama Territory. About three years later the Holleys moved to Covington County, Ala. and settled in an un-populated area near the present City of Sanford on the head waters of Five Run Creek. On Dec 23, 1823 William Holley purchased 80 acres of land at this location (NW 1/4 of NW 1/4 S13-T4-R16) on which he lived and farmed for the next thirty years. William Holley and his wife probably moved to Cooffee County, Ala. in the early 1850's. Charlotte Holley died on July 9, 1855 and William Holley died two years later on Oct. 5, 1857.

William and Charlotte Holley's son Eli, was married in the late 1820's and in 1830 he was living in Covington County near the present City of Heath. He and his wife apparently died in the early 1830's leaving two children, Elias H., b. 1829 and Elizabeth b. 1831 (married Greenberry Merrill) These two children were reared by their grandparents, William and Charlotte Holley.

1830 Covington County, Alabama Census.

Eli Holley

1 male under 5 (1826-1829)
1 male 15 under 20 (1811-1815) (This male unidentified) es
1 male 20 under 30 (1801-1810)
1 female 20 under 30 (1801-1810)

From Mrs. Reys Family History data:

ELI HOLLEY and his wife left two children. William and Charlotte reared them. Elias married Sarah(Rebecca, Charlotte, Hoven D. and Prudence, children) Elizabeth married Greenberry Merrill.

Since the above material was compiled, it has been learned that Charlotte was a MASSEY.

There is much more on William Holley Jr's children in the Wiley D. Ward material, but I am only including Eli's family. If Mr. Russell is unable to obtain the other material, I will copy it for him in its entirety. es.

The Eli Holley of the 1830 Georgia Census, may have been related, but William and Charlotte's son Eli was in Alabama, not Georgia. or it certainly seems from these records. es.

Dear Mrs. Edwards:

Am enclosing pedigree chart, descendancy chart, and several family group sheets. You will note that this is the combined research of you, Mrs. Phillips of AL, Charlene Holley Smith, and myself. I put Charlene Holley Smith's address on the descendant chart, because she is an active researcher in the Holley line and would love to hear from you. Most of her Holleys came to East Texas and stayed.

It wasn't until I started posting this material for you that I found that my Godfrey Lee Holley and Columbus C Holley (brothers) married sisters and daughters of Hosea Holley (see family group sheet) Martha Jane and Mary Jane Holley. I know you will find other omissions after reviewing the material and if you let me know I'll make adjustments.

Good talking to you, and if I can make sense out of Jean Day's material I will let you know.

Tom

Re Holley:

Just a few notes to add to Glenn's letter.

Holley's daughters -

1. Martha Jane - born Feb. 24, 1846
 - married first Columbus C. Holley
 - married second O. P. (Perry) Danley
 - died April 19, 1917 - buried in McKuffie Cemetery
2. Mary - born c. 1848 died c. 1925
 - married Godfrey Holley
 - her ~~gr~~ gr grand daughter is Lois Cassidy Childs - Samson
3. Elizabeth - born Sept., 1850 info from Lois Childs
 - married George Danley
4. California - born ^{Jan '16} 1855 died July 17, 1930 - buried in Thacker's Rest Cemetery in Samson
 - married B. P. McKuffie
 - Glenn's grandmother
5. Bama - born ~~1858~~ Nov. 5, 1858
 - married Washington Danley (How could he be G. A. Danley?)
 - died Dec. 26, 1928

Looks as if Bama's mother (Nancy) died 6 months after Bama was born.

A man in Samson says that Wash Danley was A.W.

"This 'puzzle' is most fascinating. Hope someday we can unravel it.

Dear Mrs Edwards:

I got you name from Berenice Holley, formerly of Waynesboro Miss., who is the daughter of Linwood Ernest Holley (Sheet 3).

I am an early beginner at this role of family historian, so it would appear that I am restricting myself by seeking knowledge only in the Holley and Robinson Family lines (My mother's parents) Sheet 6. I'm just taking short steps at first.

Berenice advises me that you may have some knowledge of the Holley's and it so would you be willing to share some of your data.

Thank You for any help

To Marie W. Boylston goes credit for this genealogy. It was she who suggested it be done and procured information from many of the family. To her, my thanks. And to Fred Cook and Monroe George also thanks for their tremendous assistance. To all others who furnished information, my appreciation.

To my knowledge no one has proven the origin of the Holley/Holly family or families who settled in Barnwell and Edgefield Districts of South Carolina in the early 1800s. I am not suggesting that they came from Bertie County, N.C., though I have included some records from that county, but due to some similarity of names thought this a possibility. Whether the name is spelled with or without an "e" depends on the record--court, census, etc.

Pictures of the older generation are taken from the book 90 YEARS IN AIKEN COUNTY, by the late G. L. Toole.

Mark

HOLLEY - WATERS SKETCHES

Mark Holley was born 1810 in Edgefield - Newberry District of South Carolina. He married about 1830/31 and continued to live in South Carolina; but with the great western lands opening up many of his relatives were moving to the new lands. In Cousin Philemon Berry's book he gives us a sketch of their leaving their homeland, as told to him by his mother who was in the caravan going to Butler and Wilcox Counties, Alabama. This tide of emigration from South Carolina was at its flood in the 1830's. Kindred and neighbors in large colonies annually sold out their lands and crops and left their native state for new homes in the thin wilderness of the new states, taking with them their families, slaves, stock and portable effects. At that time there was not a railroad in the South. The emigrant of that period transported his family and effects in wagons and consumed weeks in weary travel and camping out to reach their destined location. The Waters Family Captain Philemon Berry Waters and Mark Holley passed through the city of Augusta, Georgia on their way to Alabama.

The valley of the Savannah River near Augusta is formed by high hills and ridges on each side of the river. From these elevations a wide expanse of country can be seen for miles up and down the valley, forming a landscape of great beauty and extent. On the crest of the Georgia hills overlooking the city and valley, the signs of the emigrants were halted and all of the party turned and looked to cast a farwell look upon the hills of their native land. The scene was grandly beautiful and picturesque, the occasion sad and pathetic. Tender emotions were stirred in the hearts of all as they recalled fond recollections of home, kindred, and friends left behind. The emotional negroes loudly lamented and shouted farwell to "Old Souf Carlina". Tender, loving mothers clasped in their arms their wondering children and wept, and strong bearded men turned away with dim eyes to resume their journey.

Many of the emigrants led through the Cherokee and Upper Creek Indian lands. They camped one night in an Indian Village while the emigrants were away on a hunt. The rain was falling in torrents and some of the huts and wigwams of the Indians were opened to shelter the families of the emigrants from the storm. The Indians returned the next morning before the party had left. At first the Indians did not appear to welcome the presence of the whites, or like their invitation into their homes, but when the emigrants proposed to purchase some of their game and their wares and made them many presents, the anger of the Indians was appeased and they mingled in friendly intercourse with the whites. Captain Waters purchased a pair of worked moccasins for his infant daughter. These are yet treasured in the family as a souvenir of that event. This band of relatives located on the Alabama River in Wilcox and Butler County, Alabama. This is where we find Mark Holley in the 1840 Census, in Butler County, which is about half way between Montgomery and Mobile, Alabama. Mark Holley had a small baby born just before this journey. In 1850 this child had died; as only John P., Jethro (Jeff), Lydia, and George H., the children of Mark Holley survived this journey from South Carolina, to Alabama, then on to Mississippi, Attala County by 1842. Captain Philemon Berry Waters was preparing to move to Texas at the same time Mark Holley was preparing to move to Attala County, Mississippi. Captain Waters was stricken with malarial fever and died on 30 July 1840 in Butler County, Alabama. Also living in Butler County, Alabama with Captain Philemon Waters and Mark Holley; was Wilks Berry Waters, the second son and youngest child of Colonel Philemon Waters. Wilks was born in Newberry District, South Carolina in 1783. He married Nancy Manning. The son of Wilks Berry Waters was named Philemon Berry Waters after his Waters relatives and was born 14 August 1808 and made the move to Alabama with his father in the 1830's; he was sheriff of Butler County, Alabama for twenty-four years.

Philemon Waters, son of Philemon Waters, Senior was a native of Virginia, born near the Potomoc River in Prince William County, Virginia on 1 June 1734.

In 1754 Virginia found it necessary to raise a regiment of troops to protect her claim to the Ohio Valley from the French. The regiment was recruited in the spring of 1754. A history of this campaign is told in a journal kept by Colonel George Washington (later the first president of the United States) and in this regiment was Philemon Waters. In the Dinwiddie papers of the Virginia Historical Society is a payroll for this regiment from 29 July to 29 September 1754 and on it is the name Philemon Waters.

Their westward movement was slow and toilsome. The soldiers were obliged to drag their cannon over the rough roads and bridgeless streams. On the march and in camp the tentless soldiers were drenched by ceaseless rains that fell in torrents, and their suffering was greatly increased by insufficient supplies of provisions. They pushed on to Great Meadows, (This location is now Pittsburg, Pennsylvania.) and arrived on 26 May 1754; here they erected a fort which they called Fort Necessity. A great battle started on 3 July 1754. An account of this battle is contained in a letter from Williamsburg, Virginia, dated 19 July 1754 and published in the "The South Carolina Gazette" for 22 August 1754. (See files in library South Carolina Historical Society, Charleston, South Carolina) Judge O'Neal's "Annals of Newberry contains this version: The story is that during the occupation of Fort Necessity, at Great Meadows; the sentinel had been night after night shot down at a particular post. Philemon Waters was detailed in his turn for that station. Knowing its dangers, he loaded his musket with slugs, or buckshot, and took his post "wide awake". In the course of his turn he heard some noise like the grunting of a hog, and observing by the moonlight at the same time the tall grass of the prairie shaking, as if some animal or person was moving therein, he put, to use his own expression "three hails in one," fired and killed two Indians and three French. They were on all-fours behind each other, stealthily approaching the

When his well directed fire defeated so fatally their purpose. An agreement was reached by Washington and the French Commander that Washington would surrender the fort to the French and Washington and his men would be allowed to return to Virginia. Upon surrender the French Commander inquired for the sentinel who had occupied the post, fired without hailing and killed two Indians and three men. Philemon Waters was standing behind Col. George Washington with his rifle well loaded, primed and cocked. Col. Washington replied that the sentinel had fallen in the attack and defense of the fort. Washington was unwilling to expose Philemon Waters and so spoke falsely. In later years Philemon Waters said, "If he, (George Washington) had said 'Phil Waters, he (George Washington) would never have spoken again.'"

Philemon Waters served again in 1756, but then bid farewell to "the drum, the shrill sounding fife, and all the pride, prompt, and circumstance of glorious war." He afterwards emigrated to Charleston, South Carolina where we find him in 1765; by 1778 he was in Orangeburg District, South Carolina in the General Assembly. Again he fought for this country; he was in the battle of Stono on the 26 June 1779. During the Revolutionary War his sword was drawn and he returned to its scabbard until freedom and liberty were won. He was appointed by the South Carolina Legislature as assessor and collector of taxes for the lower district between Broad and Soluda Rivers (4 Statutes South Carolina, pp. 491, 731; 5 Statutes South Carolina, p. 24) He as such made his return to the State Treasurer in Charleston, and to him made payment of the money collected. Mary then was in gold and silver and traveling was on horseback and always in some peril. In the country between Dorchester and Charleston, South Carolina, this was particularly the case. Philemon Waters, on his way to Charleston with the money in his saddle bags, was overtaken by night in this suspicious district. He was armed, having his trusty pistols in the holsters before him. Thinking about the possible danger, he involuntarily laid his hand upon a pistol, cocked and half drew it from the holster. As his horse passed a large pine tree, the bridle was seized, and a robber stood by his side. In one instant Waters' pistol was drawn and thrust into the side of the assailant and fired. With a yell of pain and fear the robber let go the bridle and fled. Waters put spurs to his horse and galloped to the house where he intended to lodge, some two miles distant. There he obtained lights and assistance, and returned to the spot where he had been attacked, there a club and large knife was found. Following the traces of blood a short distance, a large, powerful fellow was found shot through the body and already dead. Colonel Philemon Waters died 30 March 1796 and was buried on his plantation. His wife was Mary Berry, born 1740 in Charleston, South Carolina and died 31 October 1791.

No doubt, the brother of Philemon Waters, Thomas W. Waters led just such a life as his brother. Time prevents the research necessary to find the Colonial and Revolutionary War Record of Thomas W. Waters in Virginia; however Thomas was also a surveyor and contractor. He built the first court house and jail in Newberry District, South Carolina. Thomas probably stayed in Virginia until about 1783, at which time he removed to South Carolina after the death of his father Philemon Waters who was born 1711 and died in 1779. Thomas W. Waters was living in 1803 and research still continues. He was the father of Rosanna Waters who married John Holley and they were the parents of Mark Holley who left South Carolina and settled in Attala County, Mississippi. Philemon Waters, on whom the Revolutionary and Colonial sketches were written was the Great uncle of Mark Holley.

CHAPTER IV

ARTHUR MASSEY, CHERAWS DISTRICT, SOUTH CAROLINA, 1769

FIRST GENERATION

I. ARTHUR MASSEY, by tradition a son of PHILLIP, was born about 1735, died 1801, Kershaw Co., S.C.; married ELIZABETH ALSTON.

Early data on ARTHUR was found in an affidavit taken from the Revolutionary pension application of his son, ALSTON MASSEY, No. R.7004 - B. L. Wt. 87024-160-55, dated 1 April 1848, age 86 years, living in Monroe Co., Alabama. Some of the information is misleading and needs to be explained.

1848 - 86 = 1762

The Cheraws District derived its name from the fact that the Cheraw Indians had formerly occupied a considerable portion of the land within its borders and after they had gone elsewhere and white settlers had moved in, the section was at first called "the Cheraws' lands", soon simplified into "The Cheraws". By an act ratified in 1769, the Province of South Carolina was divided into seven judicial districts: Charleston, Georgetown, Beaufort, Orangeburg, Ninety-Six, Camden and Cheraws. In 1795 Pinckney and Washington Districts were added. In 1798 the nine districts then existing were divided into twenty-four; Chesterfield, Darlington and Marlborough from Cheraws District; Kershaw and Lancaster from Camden District.

In his pension application, ALSTON MASSEY stated he was born in Virginia, about 25 miles above Halifax. This Halifax is in North Carolina, and not Virginia, making his birthplace in Brunswick or Greenville Counties, Virginia. He also states "that when he was a child his father moved to Chesterfield District, So. Ca." This would make his birth date about 1762. As Chesterfield District was not formed until 1798, the district where ARTHUR settled is the Cheraws. Proof is shown in a land grant to ARTHUR MASSEY, 150 acres in the district of Cheraw on Deep Creek, dated 5 June 1786.

At the time of his death, ARTHUR MASSEY was living in Kershaw County, South Carolina where his will is on file in Book D, I. page 124, recorded 28 Nov 1801; Ord. I Alexander, Apt. 43, Pkg. 1539.

X → In Lancaster County, South Carolina Deed Books C & E, part III, A 487, page 44, Indenture, 13 Dec 1787, ARTHUR MASSEY and ELIZABETH, his wife, planter of Lancaster, sell for 250 pounds to SOLOMON OWENS, 150 acres, being part of a tract of 200 acres lying on both sides of a branch of Lynches Creek, called Buffalow, first granted JOHN BOATRIGHTS, 31 Oct 1769, recorded in Book D.D.D., page 486. Witnesses: RICHARD HOLLEY and SAM MANGUM. Signed ARTHUR MASSEY and ELIZABETH MASSEY.

Over the years I have picked up various items regarding ARTHUR MASSEY, but I have not been able to verify them. It is said that in a D.A.R.

APT. 43 PKG. 1539 DATED 10 MAY 1801, RECORDED 28 NOV 1801.

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN:

I, ARTHUR MASSEY of Kershaw County and State of South Carolina, being very weak in body but of Sound Sense and Memory: All thanks be given to God for it. And calling to mind the mortality of my body, knowing that it is appointed for all men to die first and principally above all things I do recommend my soul into the hands of God who gave it. And my body to be entered in the earth from whence it was taken at the discretion of my friends. And so for that worldly estate it hath pleased God to bless me with, I give unto my beloved wife, ELIZABETH MASSEY, during her natural life, the lands and plantation whereon I now live, with the mill and all my household goods and furniture, and plantation tools; and all my hogs and one mare. And after her decease I give five shillings sterling to my son ALSTON MASSEY. Likewise I give five shillings sterling to my son OLIVER MASSEY. Likewise I give to my daughter SALLY CATO, five shillings. Likewise I give to my daughter CHARLOTTE HOLLY five shillings. Likewise I give to my daughter NANCY HAYNES five shillings. And my will and desire is that after my wife's death that the remaining part of my estate should be equally divided between my son DREWRY MASSEY, and my son ELIAS MASSEY and to their heirs forever. I do hereby Disannull all other wills by me made and declare this and no other to be my Last Will and Testament to which I do appoint and ordain my beloved wife, ELIZABETH, and my son OLIVER MASSEY executors to see the same fully performed in testimony of which I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 10th day of May A.D. 1801. in August of 1969, but I was able to contact her daughter, Mrs. Paul L. Hammett, Jr. (Louise), 403 Ridgecrest Road, LaGrange, Ga. 30240, who stated her mother lived in the New Hope Community when she was a child, and had listed all of the original headstones in the New Hope Cemetery. As ALSTON did not have a stone, Mrs. Barfield arranged to have a D.A.R. marker placed at his grave. In 1974, I obtained a photograph of the marker, and the information the church is no longer there. A copy of the History of Harris County is in the Bradley Memorial Library, Bradley Drive, Columbus, Ga. 31906 (1970). ALSTON MASSEY is also shown in the book where he drew land in the Cherokee Land Lottery, 1838, District 28, Lot 3-128 ... Robinson's. ALSTON is also listed in Knight's Roster, page 584; McCall's D.A.R. Collections, page 322.

Deeds in Monroe Co., Alabama show that on 23 October 1845, ALSTON MASSEY bought 40 acres of land with appurtenances, etc. from GEORGE W. MASSEY and his wife RHODA, Deed Book B, page 568, and on the 15th day of October 1845, he bought 40 acres of land from DANIEL and NANCY KELLY, Deed Book C, page 312. ALSTON MASSEY, SR. evidently went to Monroe Co., Alabama to be near his relatives in his old age. His sister, SALLY (SARAH) CATO, lived in Monroe Co., Ala. Another sister, CHARLOTTE (MASSEY) HOLLY, lived in Covington, Alabama. ELIAS MASSEY of Monroe was of the age to have been his son, but not a brother. He was also of the age to be ELIAS, JR., son of the elder ELIAS, born before 1762. The ELIAS MASSEY of Monroe Co., Ala., and Leake Co., Mississippi was born in 1792 according to the Leake Co., Miss. census. GEORGE W. MASSEY, named in the deed to ALSTON MASSEY was a grandson of the younger ELIAS MASSEY.

ALSTON MASSEY died on the 17th day of July 1853, age 91 years, near Monroeville, Monroe Co., Ala. (Revolutionary Pension Record). On 19 Feb 1855, Court of Probate, Special Term; E. W. ROBERTS, Administrator for the estate of ALSTON MASSEY, was ordered to sell the real estate of said deceased, so that it could be distributed. The land is described as follows: N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ of N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$, Section 33, and the N. $\frac{1}{2}$ of N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 34, all in J7 R7. This is the same land he bought from GEORGE W. MASSEY, and DANIEL KELLY in 1845.

ALSTON MASSEY is listed in the 1850 Monroe Co., census, with wife EMELINE, two males, ANDREW J. MASSEY, and WILEY L. MASSEY, sons by 2nd wife. The 1840 Harris Co., Ga. census shows two females (daughters?). Data on EMELINE (ALLEN) MASSEY follows the list of children of ALSTON MASSEY and his first wife, name unknown.

Of the nine children shown in the 1810 census of Chesterfield Co., S.C. for ALSTON MASSEY, SR. and his first wife, only three are definitely known, but there is strong evidence of two other sons, ELIAS and PLEASANT.

Known children:

1. WILLIAM MASSEY, born in South Carolina about 1785, married c. 1809, NANCY THURMAN, daughter of the Revolutionary soldier, BENJAMIN THURMAN and JULIA (SHUMATE) THURMAN of Chesterfield

Alston S. Massey

He sold land to CLAIBORNE CATO, 7 Nov 1836 in Monroe Co., Ala., as shown by Deed Book A, page 192. Deeds after 1865 in Chesterfield Co., S.C. show a CALVIN MASSEY who may be the same man.
- ii. ALFRED CLARKE MASSEY, b. 1820 in Alabama; m. (1) JANE HOLLY, b. 1821, Alabama, as shown in the Leake Co., 1860 census; m. (2) MARTHA MATILDA ROGERS.

He is buried near his home at Tocowa, near Batesville, Miss. The New Orleans Christian Advocate, a Methodist church paper, had an obituary of AMANDA BRADLEY MASSEY which stated she was born 28 June 1826, in Alabama and married ARTHUR W. MASSEY on 5 Dec 1848. He died 1866, in Panola Co., Miss., and she died 25 Aug 1890, mother of eleven children.
- v. DREWRY MASSEY lived in Monroe Co., Ala., and later moved to Texas. DRU W. MASSEY sold land to JEREMIAH BOYLES and his wife CLARISSA, 18 Jan 1858, as shown in Deed Book G, page 91, Monroe Co., Ala. DREWRY MASSEY sold land to W. A. WHISENHUNT, 26 Sept 1866 as shown in Deed Book G, page 303, Monroe Co., Alabama.
- vi. BYRON MASSEY, married MARY E. HARRIS, 25 Dec 1852.
- vii. MAHALA MASSEY, b. South Carolina, 3 July 1810, d. 15 Aug 1848; m. WILLIAM HENDRIX in Monroe Co., Ala., 7 Feb 1828. MAHALA was the first person to be buried in the Goshen Church yard.

In March of 1974, I received a letter from Mrs. EULAND M. (MYRA) RUSHING of 216 Banbury, Montgomery, Ala. 36109, who stated her line was from PLEASANT T. MASSEY who married LAVINIA SHUMATE in

Dear Lois:

I will try to answer your letter of the 9th pertaining to my husbands Holley line.

Hastin(g)? (Calvin or Council) Holley was born in N.C. March 5, 1830, Married 17 July 1858 to Sarah Ann Reynolds whose family lived in the Webster Parish, La. Family tradition says she was related to the J.R. Reynolds tobacco Co. family.

The Holley family was Pennsy. Dutch, says family members. A gda wrote me that Sarah Ann told her of shooting at a negro who was trying to break into her home while her husband was in service-Civil War. From the Dept. of Public Welfare, Baton Rouge, I obtained war service record for a H.C. Holley (Halley, H.C.) Pvt. Co. B, 11th Battn. Ia. Inf. En. May 6, 1862, Natchitoches, Rolls from May 1862 to Feb. 1863, Present. Roll from Mar 1863 & Apr 1863, absent-detached service-carpenter at Fort De Russy. Again absent on detailed service as carpenter in 1864.

His occupation in later life was as a carpenter, building several pieces of furniture, retained by family. Whether the above record was for my husbands H.C. isn't known, positively, i.e..

Cousins of Hastin who lived in Coushatta, Ia. were Dave and Crock(nickname?) John, Jr. and Austin the oldest. There was another cousin called Zach or Zack. Last fall I met a Mr. Holley, Shreveport, Ia. whose f. was Hosey Holley. Had a letter from a Mrs. Holley of Coushatta, Ia. whose husband was a son of John who married Mattie Horton. Johns father was Zacharia Holley. I have nothing of the family members of Hastin Holley. Do have the name & address of one living child of John that might be able to give some info. I just must write her soon.

Hastin(g) and Sarah Ann Holley Had: 5 children-

1. Dock Lorenzo Holley-unmarried
2. Mina Silina Theodora Holley, m. John F. Bailey, 12 children.
3. Frances Magnolia Holley, m. Willie Merritt, 5 children (twin to #4)
4. Mary Glendora Holley, m. W.P.B. Tucker, 3 children (twin to #3 & parent of my mother-in-law.
5. Annie Lou Holley, m. Steve Gardner, 3 children.

Sorry, but I have nothing else on this line. If any connection please let me hear from you.

Sincerely,

Mrs. J.P. Taylor

One JOHN M. (MARKS DAVENPORT) MOORE, who was in 1841 of '42 the owner of iron works in Talladega, entered into a verbal agreement with JOHN F. ATKINSON, one of defendants, who acted at time by permission of his father, STEPHEN ATKINSON, then the owner of the land on which the ore bank was situated.

MOORE continued to get ore under this contract until March 1843, when he sold out his iron works to WALTER D. RIDDLE, the brother and co-partner of plaintiff.

Title to land was in defendant, JOHN F. ATKINSON, devised to him by will of his father, STEPHEN ATKINSON. (See my MOORE book, p. 119)

Dear Dr. Al,

Thank you for your most interesting and informative letter. I am sorry it has taken me so long to reply. You may be confusing me with my brother Dwight in Tuscaloosa. We both went to the University, he taking law and I engineering. I sent him a copy of the copy of Hosea's will, thinking that the unusual legal aspects might interest him.

My wife Harriet has recently found Hosea in the 1840 Covington County census, along with his apparent father William, Sr., mother and brothers Alfred, William, Jr. and Calvin. The brother John named in his will is not listed. He may have been living elsewhere at that time. From the enclosed copy of Harriet's tabulation you will note Hosea had a wife, one boy and two girls in his household in 1840. I feel sure this is his family which was murdered by the slaves. You mentioned you thought he was living around Georgiana at that time. Mrs. Lois Childs in Season, great granddaughter of Mary and Godfrey Holley, confirms the location was either there or around Andalusia and that after the tragedy Hosea moved to the most distant reaches of the land he then owned and established the home site near Kinston. My sister in Season, Jewel Armstrong, has always been under the impression the Holley burnout was at Old Town, as the settlement near Kinston was known in earlier days. Since you have indicated this later home also burned, I am wondering if, perhaps, there were two Holley burnouts.

Coffee County was formed in 1841 from Covington and Dale. In the 1850 census for Coffee we find the younger William, John and Hosea, the latter with his wife Nancy (whom you call Ann, which was another name for Nancy in those days), and the first three children of his second marriage. The Joseph Miller in his household may be a relative, possibly a son of a sister. My wife has received information from the Mormon Church in Salt Lake City that on April 23, 1960, ten years ago, a James Luther Miller, representing himself as a relative of Hosea, had Hosea, Nancy, Martha, Mary and Elisabeth baptized, as is the custom in that faith. I might mention at this time that a William, presumably the younger, was state representative from Coffee in 1849 and 1851.

Alfred again appears in Covington in the 1850 census, but neither Calvin nor William, Sr. is there. We will have to search the Coffee and Covington returns again to make sure we did not overlook them. You will note Alfred in 1850 had a four-year old son named Calvin. Brewer's history of Alabama states Alfred was state representative from Covington in 1863 with the notation the seat was vacated.

The 1860 census lists John with a household consisting of his wife Harriet,

Mrs. Lois Childs in Samson, great granddaughter of Mary and Godfrey Holley, confirms the location was either there or around Andalusia and that after the tragedy Hosea moved to the most distant reaches of the land he then owned and established the home site near Kinston. My sister in Samson, Jewel Armstrong, has always been under the impression the Holley burnout was at Old Town, as the settlement near Kinston was known in earlier days. his children, and all of Hosea's children except Martha. It is interesting to note that John had twin sons Hosea and Alfred and in the 1850 census William had twins Moses H. (for Hosea?) and Alfred T. Martha in 1860 is shown as the wife of Columbus C. and the mother of a one-year old son George A. We have not been able to find Bessie in any household in either Coffee or Covington in 1860. William does not appear in this census. He may have sold out and moved on. There is on file in Elba an interesting deed he gave to Hosea in 1857. Holley 15

I am delighted to have located the original of Hosea's will in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court in Troy and am enclosing a copy for you. Judging from the handwriting, Hosea wrote his own will on his deathbed and in a remarkably firm hand. There are many other interesting papers in the Troy file you may want to examine. In the action which Larkins filed, he refers to the posthumous daughter. There is an I. O. U. written by Hosea for $1000 which was paid by the estate. I would guess it may have been for a gambling debt and written by Hosea when he was somewhat in his cups.

In looking over my notes on the Holley grave stones, I find I show Nancy as born in 1821 without day or month. I apparently was unable to make out the latter. I note you give 1-1-1821. One that you did not list is Lewis J. Coon, born Nov. 17. 1820 and died Nov. 5, 1864. We are wondering if he may have been husband of a Holley sister.

Sincerely,

Glenn McDuffie

The State of Alabama

To the Hon. H. W. Locke, Chancellor of the Southern Chancery division, ^{South District} of the State of Alabama
Humbly Complaining sheweth unto your Honor
Your Oratrix Harriet M. Holley a Resident of Coffee County in the ^{South} Chancery District of said division that she is the widow &
Administratrix of John Holley late of Coffee
County deceased -

That her late husband said John Holley was in his life time Executor to the will of Hosea Holley who had previously departed this life in said County - was appointed in the will & duly qualified by the Probate Court of said County & by said will was not required to give Bond & security and also by said will was vested with all the power & directed to exercise
all the rights & control of said Estate of said Hosea Holley which said Hosea Holley could not have himself were he alive ^{and when in life} as will more fully appear by reference to said will a copy of which is hereto attached & marked Exhibit A - which your Orator prays may be taken as part of this bill of Complaint with leave of reference thereto as often as may be necessary.

That the deceased Hosea and John were Brothers both owning considerable Estate in said County - That deceased John Holley had for ten years or more managed and conducted for said deceased Hosea Holley a large portion of his business and had proved himself worthy in all respects of the unbounded Confidence reposed in him by his said deceased Brother Hosea

That because they were Brothers & knowing each other so well and because the said John Holley had so long transacted business largely for said Horea and with strict fidelity and because the said John knew and understood so well & far better than any of all other persons the Estate the interest views feelings and inclination of the said Horea and because the said Horea could ^{not} ~~have~~ ^{did} repose more confidence in his judgment & knowledge of his affairs than all other persons as well as from his well known & well & long tried honesty that he was so selected by said Horea to manage & conduct his entire Estate as well as to care properly for his children that he nominated him as his Executor or Trustee and general law agent ^{in his said will mentioned} ~~expressly stipulating~~ that Bond & security should not be required of the said John Holley as such Executor

That said John Holley proceeded under the power given in said will to manage and conduct said Estate & did so in strict & scrupulous conformity to the provisions of said will and performed all his duties greatly to the interest of said Estate

That before the death of the said John Holley the Executor of the said Horea Holley deceased One C C Holley clandestinely married one of the children of the said Horea who was a mere child under the age of fourteen years & which was greatly opposed by the deceased John Holley because of her extreme youth and because he regarded the said C C Holley as unworthy of her and for other reasons too delicate here to expose but which influenced him as a proper representative of his Brother & child to take steps which he did to render void the marriage - but his ^{the said C C Holley} efforts were thwarted by procuring the written consent of the Mother of the child and obtaining a marriage license in the State of Florida

And by going over the Ceremony of marriage again in that state where at the time there existed no statute against the marriage of a child under fourteen years of age that said C. C. Holley then employed Counsel to contest & set aside the will upon one ground which was feared to be fatal to wit that the will had not been properly executed the facts were presented by said John Holley the Executor to Counsel and to the Judge of Probate the late Hon. P. D. Costello who was a Lawyer and a gentleman of great integrity and by whose opinion and advice mainly was the said Executor influenced to compromise with said C. C. Holley who was willing and anxious to accept an advancement of about Six thousand dollars and stop his proceedings acquiesce in the will as it was found & Probated under the powers of which he acted as the Executor aforesaid that he said Executor was also influenced to make such compromise with said C. C. Holley because he was then an heir to said Estate and on account of his known views of the said Horea while in life to avoid family strife as well as to avoid litigation as is shown in his will Which will is here asked to be construed in all respects and especially as to the powers of the Executor under it and the compromise aforesaid was made as aforesaid and the advancement to the said C. C. Holley who has ever since acquiesced in the will

That under that impression the settlement commenced that soon both herself & Counsel became satisfied that such a settlement as would protect her & the Estate she represented could not be made there because various oppressive advantages as her Counsel and herself ^{discovered} were sought to be taken of her. She therefore instructed her Counsel to use all efforts to believe her and was of opinion that he did that her Counsel informed her that he would object ~~and~~ to the settlement being made because the appointment of the said Larkins was irregular and because the Register had no jurisdiction of the matters & things in controversy and she charges expressly that these objections were made by her Counsel and disregarded & overruled by the Register who proceeded to make settlement greatly to her prejudice. That said Larkins suggested to the Register that the said C. C. Holley should be appointed Guardian ad litem for the ^{minor} children of said deceased Horea Holley that such appointment was made by the Register. That the said Larkins and the said C. C. Holley presented against the Estate of the said John Holley an account for the six thousand dollars advanced as hereinbefore stated to the said C. C. Holley by the said Executor of Horea Holley the said John Holley

As she is informed by him and believes & charges also that it was agreed between her Counsel and the Counsel of the said Larkin & Co Holley (both said Larkin & Holley had Counsel engaged against her) that the bill of exceptions should be fairly made out & signed so as to embrace all the points in controversy but that as she is informed ^{by her Counsel} and believes that a fair bill of exceptions covering all the points was prepared by her Counsel & presented which was wholly refused so that she could ^{not} take up the case for revision - That she then employed additional Counsel to wit G. T. Yelverton Esq to go to Troy & examine the case after the settlement who after ascertaining from the Counsel against her that no bill of exceptions to cover the points he understood to be in the case & to have been presented by Mr. Flournoy could not be had but advised her to appeal to the Supreme Court he believed that the record was so defective the case would be reversed upon that ground - She assented to this instructed her Counsel to take the appeal. She is advised & believes that her Counsel applied to the Register Wm. H. Parks Esq who succeeded

Murphy Esq (said Murphy having acted in the case rendered decrees) for an appeal which was granted notice issued her bond taken but not filed because she was advised by her Counsel Yelverton that upon ^{an} interview with said Larkin they had agreed to accommodate said case without an appeal to the Supreme Court

Dear Patricia:

Just got a chance to visit my brother last week and make copies of the data in my mother's bible. Where the writing is a little hard to read in the copy I have used red ink and written the number or word that is easy to read from the original.

I have been most fortunate to have make contact with a Mrs Verna Holley Phillips-P O Box 11201-Montgomery AL 36111, who has all of the remaining information on my Godfrey Lee Holley. In fact she is going to the publishers now with a book on the Holley line and I thought you might like to contact her. She may have something along your lines.

I don't remember, but I do not think I answered you as to who was the 1st Husband of Mary Ann HEMITAR. I have since found that he was James LEATHERWOOD.

Take Care

See my response to another note on this family about James' father, John. There are several possibilities for the immigrant Holley in Virginia, but I haven't worked on it enough to tie it together. If you do tie into James of Richmond county, you and I will connect at his father. That'd be great, cuz! Mine line goes: John of Bertie District d. 1728; John b. abt 1714 d. aft 1782; Richard b. abt. 1740 Cravens co. SC; d. 1825 Kershaw, SC; John b. abt 1797 Kershaw, SC d. aft. 1870 Rusk co. I have some sibling information on each generation and would love to have yours to add to it. I'm using PAF if you'd like data exchange. Looking forward to hearing from you...

W. M. Holley's first land purchase in Coosa Co., Ala was on 11-28-1848. So was his 1st Census appearance there, at the age of 40. Two houses down is the family of James Holley, age 49 (Wm's brother?). Their birthplace is given as Ga. I don't know for sure where they came from, but Houston Co., Ga. is the only county in 1840 Census with both a Wm & a James Holley (plus a Wm Sr). I wrote there, requesting copies of marriage licenses (hoping for Wm & Sarah Yates) and wills, but received only a will of Wm. Sr. who named only a wife Mazy (?), grandson Thomas, and son Wm. Jr (executor). Other heirs were mentioned, but not by name. The will was dated 5 June 1842.

Georgia Counties with a Wm. Holley (Holly)

1850	1840	1830	1820
Franklin	Houston (2)	DeKalb	Bulloch
	Randolph	Houston (2)	Emanuel
	Walton	Walton	Franklin (2)

I hope you can find a relationship in all this. If not, maybe you've found some information in your own searches that can help me (such as, where did Wm Holley marry Sarah Yates?). I'm looking forward hearing from you. Please write soon.

Dear Mrs. Hetherington:

First, let me apologize for my delay in answering your letters. Your 1st 2 came while I was on vacation (July 21-Aug 01), and since I've returned, I've been trying to get resettled into my routines at home and at work.

Your last letter, giving the marriage of Wm Holley and Sarah Yates in Fayette Co. was extremely helpful and very much appreciated. I had not yet found a record of their marriage, and Fayette Co. was not even on my list for consideration! Thanks, again!

You are quite fortunate that you've traced your Holley line back as far as you have. I have not yet located my Wm Holley in 1840. Sarah Yates was his 2nd wife, and his 1st child by her (Jos. B.) was supposedly born in Ala in 1838. Therefore, my Wm should be in Ala in 1840. According to an Ala Census Index for 1840, there were Wm Holleys in the following counties: Autauga, Covington (Jr & Sr), and Mobile. Unfortunately, our library has no 1840 Ala microfilms. In 1840, Wm should be 33, Sarah 23, and have 3 sons, at least 2 of which should be 0-5 years old. It's amazing how many Wm Holleys there were!

Since, in 1850 Ala a James Holley (age 49) lived only 2 houses (dwelling 36) away from Wm Holley (ages 40, dwelling 34), I am assuming that they are brothers. However, Jas' oldest child (age 18) was born in Ala (1832), and Wm married Sarah in Ga in 1835. James Holleys in 1840 Ala are in Barbour, Sumter, & Lowndes Cos., although, as with Wm, I haven't found them.

If Wm & James are brothers, I have 2 candidate Ga. counties for 1830: Dekalb & Houston. Both these cos. have Wms the right age (20-30). However, since Houston Co. 1850 has a Wm Holley, age 46, I suspect that Dekalb Co. is the correct one for my Wm. Do you have access to Dekalb Co. marriage records? As you'll note on a map, Dekalb is near Fayette, where Wm married Sarah in 1835. Also, Dekalb is not too far from Franklin Co., so maybe we'll connect lines after all! Present in 1830 Dekalb Co. are John & James^{H.} Holley (both 30-40) and Wm Holley (20-30). They may all be brothers, descended from a Franklin Co. Holley. In 1850-1880 Censuses, Wm gives his birthplace as Ga., but in 1880 says that both his parents were born in S.C. I haven't located Jas Holley after 1850, because the double-page copying of Ala microfilms makes them extremely difficult to read. The only other Wm Holley I've found a reference to in 1830 is in Walton Co, p 139, but my library doesn't have it, either.

If your library has any books that can shed light on Sarah Yates' ancestry (wills, marriage licenses, etc), I'd appreciate what you can tell me.

Well, that's about it for now. Again, sorry for my delay in replying. I look forward to hearing from you. Write soon. Genealogy is hard work, often very frustrating, but above all, fun!

Sincerely,

Joan Hamman

Dear Mrs. Hetherington,

Thank you for sending me the data on Yates marriages in Fayette Co, Ga. I'm sorry I haven't written to you sooner, but last week I went to the Ark Historical Commission (Archives) in Little Rock for the 1st time in almost 6 months and I wanted to see if I found out anything new before writing to you. I didn't, and right now I feel like I'm butting my head against a wall on Holleys and Yates. I've probably done all I can with census records now, and I really need to research in county records, particularly deeds and wills. I would like to examine records from Autauga Co, Ala to confirm whether the Wm Holley there in 1840 is the same one in DeKalb Co, Ga in 1830 and in Coosa Co, Ala in 1850. Deed records should help on this. Then, since he married Sarah Yates (2nd wife) in Fayette Co, Ga in 1835, I need to examine deed records from there to see when he arrived and left. He may have only met her there while living in the adjacent DeKalb Co. Unfortunately, according to Hardy Book For Genealogists, the DeKalb Co. courthouse burned in 1842, so I don't know what I'll do about that county. I've gone through all the Ga. books in our library several times and have run out of leads. I guess I need to take another trip (very unlikely) or research through correspondence with some of these courthouses. If I do find out anything new, I'll let you know. We're in the process of selling our house and buying another (still in Pine Bluff), which, as you know, is a very unsettling experience.

I exchanged letters with June Ballard. I don't think we really helped each other much, but the exchange of information may prove useful for the process of elimination, if nothing else. I certainly appreciate your sending me the information you have, particularly Wm's marriage to Sarah Yates), and I'll let you know if I make any progress.

Sincerely,

Jim Harmon

Dear Mrs. Hetherington,

I'm sorry I've taken so long to write. We moved just before last Thanksgiving. My new address is:

2207 GINNETT DR

PINE BLUFF, ARK 71602

I haven't done a lick of genealogy work since we moved. I've been very busy, both at work and at home, trying to get this house fixed up a little more to our liking. We now live out of town a ways, so it won't be as convenient for me to run down to the library. Also, gasoline ~~be~~ may become a more important consideration.

As regards the Holleys, I think my best bet now would be to research original records (courthouse, etc.). So I need to take another trip to Alabama and Georgia, take stab in the dark by writing to various counties there, or order microfilms through the Mormon church up in Little Rock. I may write to Mr Graves of the Fayette County News (mentioned in the clipping you sent me) and see if he knows anything about Holleys or Yates.

Lately I've been reading a lot about home-size computers. I'm interested in getting one, mainly to play with, but also to possibly keep my family tree information on. Yesterday, a magazine I bought had an article in it on programming a computer to store genealogical records.

Well, that's about it for now. I'll let you know if I turn up any new leads. Thanks for writing, and I'll try not to be so long in writing back.

Sincerely,
Jim Harmon

bring their Accounts as soon as possible properly Attested to the subscribers hereof, and those who are any ways indebted to the said Estate, are likewise desired to discharge the same.

Also belonging to the said Estate and to be sold, a Negro Man and boy both which can work at the Gunsmith's Trade, and two extraordinary House wenches with their Children, likewise a choice Tract of Five hundred Acres of Land lying in Kings-Town Township, clear of Quit-Rents for eight Years to come:

Jane Massey
Thomas Bolton

All Persons who have any Things left at the Deceased's shop are desired to fetch them before the 'Prentice goes away, which will be in a very short time."

Executors named in Phillip's will were his wife Jane, and Thomas Bolton, and witnesses to the will were Andrew Dupuy, James Lourre, and James Drummond.

It is family tradition that Phillip and Jane Hopkins Massey had a son named ARTHUR MASSEY, but this is yet unproved. Phillip Massey took lands in the Cheraw area in 1737. It is in this region that Phillip Massey's supposed son, ARTHUR MASSEY, settled.

Phillip Massey received a 500 acre grant in Waccamaw Towne Ship, Craven County, certified 24 July 1736 by George Pawley, Deputy Surveyor. This land lies in present Horry Co., S.C., and is likely the 500 acres offered for sale by the widow, for Kingston Township bordered on the Waccamaw River. The advertisement stating that the land was free of quit rent for "eight Years to come" indicates that the grant had been confirmed two years previously (1737)

ARTHUR MACKAY (Massey?) was found in Craven County, S.C. in 1758. If he were Phillip's son, his age would be about 23 years. There is a deed for 300 acres, recorded 26 November, 1757, Simon Bright, surveyor.

JANE MASSEY, widow of Phillip Massey of Charleston District, on 29 May 1764 set free a slave man, PETER MASSEY, in an instrument witnessed by Charles Lorrimer.

Second Generation

ARTHUR MASSEY (1735-1801), posited son of Phillip and Jane Hopkins Massey, lived in 1762 about 25 miles above Halifax, Va. ALSTON MASSEY, son of Arthur Massey, stated in his Revolutionary pension application (R7004; Bounty Land Warrant 87024-160-55) that Alston had moved with his father about 1769 to Chesterfield District, South Carolina. Alston's affidavit was made in 1848. Arthur Massey was granted 150 acres of land on Deep Creek, Cheraw District, S.C. on 5 June 1786 [S.C. Land Grants, S.C. Archives, Columbia].

December 30, 1971, No. 219

Arthur Massey's will, recorded book D 1, p. 124, recorded 28 November 1801 by Ordinary I. Alexander, and filed Apartment 43, Packet 1539, Kershaw Co., S.C. shows that most of his land was located at Hanging Rock, Lancaster Co., S.C., where he resided, rather than in Kershaw County. The fact that Arthur Massey is found living in various districts and counties of South Carolina at the same time was caused by the alteration of county boundaries. Chesterfield County was formed in 1785 out of lands of the Cheraws District.

In Deed Books C & E, part III, A 487, page 44, of Lancaster Co., S.C. is an indenture between ARTHUR MASSEY, planter, and his wife ELIZABETH, both of Lancaster County, in which he sells for 250 Pounds, 150 acres of land to SOLOMON OWENS. This land was part of a 200 acre tract lying on both sides of Buffalow Branch, a branch of Lynches Creek, originally granted to JOHN BOATRIGHTS on 31 October 1769, recorded in Book DDD, page 486. This indenture was signed by ARTHUR MASSEY and ELIZABETH MASSEY, and witnessed by RICHARD HOLLEY and SAM MANGUM.

In D.A.R. records in Washington there is a file containing the following: "Arthur Massey came to South Carolina from above Halifax Co., Va., but was too old to take an active part in the Revolution. He moved to Georgia for a time and was there in 1790. He moved back to Chesterfield Co., of the Cheraw District, S.C., where he died. He was of the Charleston set of Massey's, some of whom resided in Virginia. His wife is thought to be Elizabeth Alston." This information was not documented.

The late genealogist Leonardo Andrea of Columbia, S.C. wrote: "Arthur Massey came to Lancaster County of Camden District from down toward Charleston. It is said but not proved that Arthur Massey was a son of Phillip Massey. It is also said that the wife of Arthur Massey was a Miss Elizabeth Alston of the rice country near Georgetown. Phillip Massey did have a land grant in 1737 in Kingston Township of Craven, and this was in the rice section above Georgetown. I have been told that Arthur Massey had Revolutionary service in either Georgia or North Carolina. He was not in the South Carolina Census of 1790.

Children of Arthur and Elizabeth Massey, as named in his will:

1. ALSTON MASSEY (1762-1853)
2. DREWRY MASSEY b. 1765-84, d. 1840-50, probably died in Alabama.
3. ELIAS MASSEY, b. 1792 in S.C., m. ELIZABETH, b. 1790 S.C. They moved to Monroe Co., Ala. after 1816. In 1845 he moved with the Hendrix, Graham and Cato families to Leake Co., Miss., then moved with his son Alford Clarke Massey to Yalobusha, Miss. where he died.
4. OLIVER MASSEY (1772-1841) living 1810 in Kershaw Co., S.C., probably m. KESIAH WELCH, dau. of William Welch. Oliver's will is recorded in Perry Co., Ala., dated 2 April 1841. The Hopewell Church has also kept a record of tombstone inscriptions which give records of Oliver Massey and his family. Oliver died 2-21-1841 at the age of 69 years. Kesiah Massey, born 12-20-1774, died 10-7-1855.

5. SARAH (Sally) MASSEY, b. 4 August 1770, m. 8 September 1787 WILLIAM CATO, b. 27 October 1765 [from Travis Family Bible, Texas Archives, Austin]. This family lived in Monroe Co., Ala. in 1836
6. CHARLOTTE MASSEY m. Mr. HOLLY. One WILLIAM HOLLY who lived in Covington Co., Ala. in 1847 made an affidavit that he was personally acquainted with Alston Massey (Charlotte's brother) at the time Alston went out in campaign under General Francis Marion in the Revolution; see Alston Massey's Revolutionary pension application. William may or may not have been Charlotte's husband; nothing more is known of her.
7. NANCY MASSEY m. Mr. HAYNES. One FRANCIS L. HAYNES witnessed Arthur Massey's will; he may or may not have been Nancy's husband.

Third Generation

ALSTON S. MASSEY (1762-1853) married twice. His first wife's name is unknown; second wife was EMELINE ALLEN whom he married 14 April 1820 in South Carolina. His Revolutionary pension application, cited earlier, was filed 1 April 1848 from Monroe Co., Ala., when he gave his age as 86 years. He stated he had a record of his age, but gave it to his son about 24 years before in South Carolina. He had entered service in 1782 when he was only 17 years of age, and served with Gen. Francis Marion, Col. Lamb Burton, Col. Horry, Major James Oldfield, and Major Peter Dubose. Since the Revolution he resided in Chesterfield District, S.C. for 45 years, then removed to Georgia [West Point, Harris County, Ga.] where he resided until three years ago [in 1845] when he moved to Monroe Co., Ala. On 6 October 1855, his second wife, then widowed, made an affidavit stating that she was married by one Aaron Knight to Alston S. Massey. No public records of marriage were kept by South Carolina, and that she had no private or family record of this marriage. She stated that Alston had died on 17 July 1853 in Monroe Co., Ala., near Monroeville.

On 22 October 1795 Alston Massey was granted 100 acres of land, surveyed for Robert Kirkland on 18 September 1791, in Cheraw District, Chesterfield Co., S.C. on the north side of Deep Creek, bounded n/e by Robert Kirkland's land, n/w by vacant land, s/w by Alexander Craig, s/e by Alston Massey's own land, and that of Joseph Powell. This was recorded in S.C. Grants Book 41, p. 461.

The 1790 Census of Chesterfield Co., S.C. lists Alston as ALSTON MASSET. The Chesterfield censuses of 1800, 1810, and 1820 list him as ALSTON MASSEY. The census of 1810 shows that he and his first wife had nine children, and that she was born about 1765. His first wife died prior to the 1820 census.

FAMILY PUZZLERS

December 30, 1971, No. 219

On 2 June 1820 Alston sold his land and moved to West Point, Harris Co., Ga., less than 6 weeks after he had remarried. Records of Chesterfield County were destroyed during the Civil War by Yankees, we are told, thus searching has been difficult.

In June 1969, while searching for Massey data and cemeteries in Mt. Croghan, S.C., Mrs. Smith contacted a distant cousin, James W. Tucker, whose deceased wife was a Massey descendant. A few days before Mrs. Smith's arrival a bank at Chesterfield, S.C., a few miles from Mt. Croghan, had been robbed. An old bonnet was found outside the bank in the discarded loot. This bonnet was stuffed with old cotton receipts, one had the name of RICHARD MASSEY (son of Alston), an old deed by ALSTON MASSEY, and another deed by BENJAMIN THURMAN. Knowing that James Tucker had married a Massey descendant, and also a descendant of PHILLIP RIVERS, the police gave the bonnet and its contents to Mr. Tucker. Phillip Rivers had married two of WILLIAM LAWRENCE MASSEY's daughters, and the bonnet is said to have belonged to one of the ladies. The lock box at the bank evidently belonged to Phillip Rivers and had been forgotten.

Alston Massey's deed, in which he sold 150 acres of land to his son Alston Massey, Jr., is now laminated and in the possession of Janice Tucker, daughter of Mr. James W. Tucker of Mt. Croghan, S.C. Copies of this deed have been deposited in the S.C. Archives, Columbia, Georgia Archives in Atlanta, and the Alabama Archives, Montgomery.

Although HISTORY OF HARRIS COUNTY, GA., by Barfield states that Alston Massey was buried in the New Hope Methodist Church Cemetery, about 10 miles east of West Point, Ga., and his grave marked as a Revolutionary Soldier by the Button Gwinnett Chapter DAR in 1957, Mrs. Smith questions this. His widow states in her pension application that Alston had died "In Monroe Co., Ala., near Monroeville" and it would have been unusual in that day to return his unembalmed body back to Georgia for burial, particularly in hot weather. His death took place on 17 July 1853. Of his nine children listed in 1810 census, only three are known: William, Alston, Jr., and Richard.

DUKE — Mrs. E. J. Holmann, Box 2701, Little Rock, Ark. 72203 needs some help on GREEN ROBERT DUKE whom she located in Savannah, Ga. in the 1790's. He is mentioned many times in the Savannah papers during those years before he died in early 1800 while on a visit to Camden, S.C. He married ANN YOUNG of South Carolina. All this is in the family Bible, but Mrs. Holmann lacks the parentage of both Green Robert Duke and Ann Young.

Another line - CLARIMOND or CLARISSY RIVES, probably connected with the Rives family of Richland Co., S.C., is found in Screven Co., Ga. where she becomes the wife of EBENEZER HARDIN. Who were parents of both Clarissy

Kin sought

Dear Sir:

I am interested in contacting any descendants or kin of Noel J. (Jackson ?) Holley who was born in Choctaw County in 1847. He served in the Confederate Army in the "Livingston 8th Alabama Cavalry". He apparently returned to Choctaw County after the Civil War and later emigrated to Wayne County, Mississippi. In 1900, he was storekeeper in Mississippi and apparently a widower. He was a Confederate pensioner and died in the late 1920's or early 1930's.

He was a first cousin of my grandfather, William Jackson Holley of Perry County, Alabama. I am anxious to contact any descendants in order to obtain genealogical information they may have.

Sincerely,

Howard L. Holley, M. D.

Uncle Zeph Holley, Pioneer Geneva County Citizen, Dies At Age Of 104

SAMSON, ALA., March 1—(Special) Funeral for Zephaniah J. Holley, 104, who died of pneumonia and the infirmities of age at the home of his nephew Manning Holley on Johnson Street Tuesday morning was conducted by the Rev. Jack Mitchell, Primitive Baptist minister at Travelers' Rest Wednesday morning. Burial followed in the family lot.

Surviving are one son, Edward Holley, Samson; five daughters; Mrs. Adella and Ella Bowers, Samson, Mrs. Bama Wise, Florala, Mrs. Diana Bradley, Mrs. Anna Lee Wise both of Willow, Fla., and several grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nephews and nieces.

"Uncle Zeph" as he was familiarly known, was perhaps one of the oldest men in the State. He was born in North Carolina Feb. 26, 1830 according to the records in the old family Bible, written with a goosequill pen dipped in pokeberry juice, 104 years and one day before the old man died.

He said he remembered distinctly when the "stars fell," and that his parents left Carolina soon after, going to North ern Mississippi and settling near a large spring, the waters of which were used not only for drinking but for grinding corn and other produce for the family, negroes and stock. The town which grew up around his father's old spring is the present town of Holley Springs. He, in company with other members of his family left Mississippi when he was quite a young man, and settled in what is now Geneva County where he has made his home for the past 35 years. Mr. Holley served through the War Between the States, being mustered into service with the 11th Florida Infantry in 1861, and was an active member of Camp Mace Kimmey 1863, U. C. V. which was organized in January 1908. His death leaves only two local members of the camp, which at one time numbered over 100 local members.

"Uncle Zeph," was until a few days before his death very active and might have easily been mistaken for a man in his early seventies. During the disastrous flood which visited this county in the Spring of 1929, he was visiting his nephew on a small farm near the Pea River. The farm was considered above high water mark and the old man retired with no thought of harm but upon waking the next morning they found everything floating away and the house swaying with the current.

He and his nephew tied things down the best they could and when rescuers reached them the centennarian was busily constructing a raft of floating timbers and other debris. The women and children were hastily put aboard the rescuing boat and Uncle Zeph told to get in, but the boat being heavily loaded he hesitated and replied in truly Confederate soldier style. "Women and children first no use to worry about 'Old Zeph' he can take care of himself he'll hit the hills in safety. Go on with the women folks."

However the rescuers thought different and put the gallant old fellow aboard and brought him in.

The last trophy he won was a pennant for second prize offered by the Garden Club last year, which was being displayed along side his camp regalia at his funeral Wednesday morning.

Holley Data

An effort to trace the ancestry of James Holley (prob. b. 1750's) who left a Will in 1816 Richmond Co., GA listing four daughters & 2 sons, James & Eli. The children migrated to Wilcox Co., AL by 1830 and the Holley's left Wilcox Co. by 1840. Three questions need to be answered.
